I. BACKGROUND AND COMPLAINT

1. The Respondent is not and has never been licensed to practice naturopathic medicine in the State of Maryland.

2. On or about December 1, 2025, the Board received a referral from the Maryland State Board of Dietetic Practice, containing a complaint submitted to that board. The complaint included screenshots of three advertisements on Facebook by a business named Alkaline Bodies. The first advertisement, posted on or about April 15, 2025, identified the Respondent as “Dr. Nev Haail” and offered services of “BIO SCANS,” “BLOOD TESTS,” and “CONSULTS.” The first advertisement identified the Respondent as the founder of Alkaline Bodies. The second advertisement, posted on or about August 4, 2025, offered services of “30-Min Zoom Health Consultation” and “Full In-Person Bio Scan,” and stated, “Telehealth Available Anywhere.” The third advertisement, posted on or about September 18, 2025, identified the Respondent as “Doctor Nev” and offered services of “FREE 30-Min Consultation” and “FREE Bio Scan when purchase Health Package” and stated, “Telehealth Available.”

3. After receiving the complaint, the Board initiated an investigation of the Respondent.

II. BOARD INVESTIGATION

4. On or about December 5, 2025, the Board reviewed Respondent’s Instagram profile, which identified the Respondent as “Dr. Nev Naturopathic Doctor” offering “Alternative & Holistic Health Service.” The profile included a hyperlink for members of the public to schedule appointments for services with the Respondent through Alkaline Bodies LLC, located in Baltimore City, Maryland. These services included a “TeleHealth Consultation,” a “Bio Scan,” and a “Complimentary 30-Minute Consultation with Dr. Nev.” The description for the “Complimentary 30-Minute Consultation with Dr. Nev” stated that during the session, a client will “[s]hare your symptoms, history, or areas of focus so we can understand your needs,” “[r]eceive professional insight on questions or areas of uncertainty,” “[o]btain initial recommendations tailored to your body and health goals,” and “[e]xplore practical options to support your wellness.” On or about February 6, 2026, the Board reviewed the Respondent’s Instagram profile, which still identified the Respondent as “Dr. Nev Naturopathic Doctor.” On or about February 24, 2026, the Board reviewed the Respondent’s Instagram profile, which now identified the Respondent as “CIND. Nev (Certified Indigenous Doctor).”

5. On or about February 13, 2026, the Board issued the Respondent a subpoena duces tecum, directing the Respondent to produce “a copy of any and all education, credentials, training, and experience including but not limited to, any academic or professional degrees, medical degrees, medical licenses, and medical certificates” held by the Respondent. On or about February 24, 2026, the Respondent produced, inter alia, an “INDIGENOUS DOCTOR’S CERTIFICATE LEVEL 1” issued by the “Aboriginal Republic of North America.”

6. On or about February 13, 2026, the Board sent the Respondent correspondence, requesting that the Respondent provide a written response to the allegations in the complaint. On or about February 24, 2026, the Respondent sent the Board correspondence, in which he acknowledged that he is “not a licensed Naturopathic Doctor.” The Respondent stated that he “serve[s] in a preventative wellness capacity under [the Respondent’s] Tribal Government as a Certified Indigenous Naturopathic Doctor.”

7. On or about March 25, 2026, the Board reviewed Instagram videos posted by the Respondent. On or about September 14, 2025, the Respondent posted a video with accompanying text stating “[i]n just 3 months, this client healed their gut using our advanced protocols!” The video contained “Before She Started” and “After 2 Months - 3 Months” screenshots of a client’s “Analysis Report Card” for “Gastrointestinal Function.” The “Before” screenshot contained a pointer to the “Testing Result[s]” and stated, “[i]f these are low, it means your stomach and intestines aren’t moving or absorbing food efficiently. . .” The “After” screenshot also contained a pointer to the “Testing Result[s]” and stated, “Stomach Almost Normal.” The video also contained a copy of a text message from the client stating “[t]hat scan opened my eyes, and your guidance really helped jumpstart this change.”

8. On or about March 25, 2026, the Board reviewed Instagram videos in which other users “tagged” the Respondent.² In a video posted on or about October 11, 2025, an Instagram user interviewed the Respondent. During the interview, the Respondent, when discussing a “parasite cleanse,” stated, “we use a medical grade product, uh, that’s called ivermectin. Ivermectin is a medical grade pill that paralyzes the parasites and also leaves them immobilized so all the other pills can work too and supplements we provide with this.” In a video posted on or about February 11, 2026, an Instagram user and the Respondent travelled to a client’s residence to perform a “Bio Scan.” The Instagram user referred to the Respondent as “Doctor Nev” and stated that, during the “Bio Scan,” “we see if there’s any heavy metals in the blood” and “really get to the root of whatever issue that our client is talking about.” The video depicted the Respondent performing the “Bio Scan” on the client. At the conclusion of the “Bio Scan,” the Instagram user stated that “finally Doctor Nev was given the diagnosis.”

9. On or about April 23, 2026, the Board issued the Respondent a subpoena duces tecum, directing the Respondent to produce “a complete unredacted copy of the records maintained for” eight clients. On or about May 14, 2026, the Respondent produced responsive records. For each of the eight clients, the Respondent produced a “Test Report”, each over 100 pages, containing thirty-seven (37) “Analysis Report Card[s]” covering various “System[s].” The “System[s]” included “Cardiovascular and Cerebrovascular,” “Liver Function,” “Bone Mineral Density,” “Blood Sugar,” and “Heavy Metal.” Each “Analysis Report Card” identified numerous “Testing Item[s]” and their corresponding “Normal Range” and “Actual Measurement Value.” The numbers for “Normal Range” and “Actual Measurement Value” almost exclusively failed to identify the measurement units. The “Analysis Report Card[s]” also generally included a paragraph or more to describe each “Testing Item.”³ The “Test Report” also contained a “Comprehensive Report Card” that identified the “System,” “Testing Item,” “Normal Range,” “Actual Measurement Value” and provided “Expert advice.” The Respondent produced a signed “EDUCATIONAL PURPOSE AGREEMENT & DISCLAIMER” for one of the eight clients.

10. On or about May 14, 2026, the Respondent produced documents which he described as “general educational documents and books created by AMA [(Aboriginal Medical Association)] and provided to customers for informational purposes only.” The documents included “Male reproductive Care for protecting against chancres,”⁴ which instructed clients to “[u]se Aloe cream and 100% tea tree oil (No alcohol form) on any chancres.” The documents also included “Vaginal Care for protecting against Bacterial vaginosis⁵ yeast infections⁶ HPV⁷ and other issues,” which instructed clients to use an

⁶ A yeast infection is a fungal infection that affects different body parts.

⁷ HPV, or human papillomavirus, is a virus that is spread through skin-to-skin contact and can cause cancer.

“Organic tampon” for a set number of weeks that varied depending on the specified medical condition. The medical conditions included cervical cancer. This document also instructed clients that “[f]or STDS use this formula and our STD Formula.”

11. On or about June 16, 2026, the Board conducted an under-oath interview with the Respondent. During the interview, the Respondent stated that, to obtain the “INDIGENOUS DOCTOR’S CERTIFICATE LEVEL 1,” he took one in-person course, three online courses, and completed a multiple-choice and short answer final examination. The Respondent stated that the training took approximately three or four months. The Respondent acknowledged that his Instagram profile identified him as a naturopathic doctor offering alternative and holistic services from approximately December 2025 to February 2026. The Respondent stated that he utilizes a “quantum magnetic resonator” to perform “Bio Scans.” The Respondent stated that the “Bio Scan” takes two or three minutes and generates a “Test Report” for the client, described above. The Respondent stated that the client holds a “pole” in their hand, with women holding the “pole” in their right hand while men holding the “pole” in their left hand. The Respondent was unable to explain the reason for the difference. The Respondent acknowledged that he had obtained a signed “EDUCATIONAL PURPOSE AGREEMENT & DISCLAIMER” for only one client whose records the Board requested. The Respondent stated that, after the “Bio Scan,” clients “will look at it and be like, oh, what does all this mean? I say these are the normal transfer ranges. These are your actual ranges, and there's normal, mild, moderate, and severe.” The Respondent stated that he offers free “Bio Scans.”
