ORDER

On September 16, 2024, Disciplinary Panel A (the “Panel”) of the Maryland State Board of Physicians (the “Board”) and Shannon L. West, M.D., entered into a Consent Order (the “Order”), wherein the Panel concluded, as a matter of law, that Dr. West was guilty of unprofessional conduct in the practice of medicine and failed to cooperate with a lawful Board investigation.¹ Dr. West was reprimanded and ordered to provide acceptable written proof, satisfactory to the Panel, confirming that she has produced the medical record of the patient she previously treated to Physician A, as requested by Physician A within TEN (10) DAYS of the effective date of the Order. The proof required may be in the form of: (1) a written response from Physician A confirming the physician’s receipt of the medical record; or (2) a trackable mailing service. The Order further stated that if Dr. West failed to provide the Panel with the satisfactory proof required, her medical license in the State of Maryland shall be automatically suspended from the 11th day of the effective date of the Order and will remain suspended until she is in full compliance with the requirement to produce the patient’s medical record to Physician A.

Dr. West has provided acceptable written proof to the Panel within ten (10) days of the effective date of the Order. It is thus, by the Panel, hereby
