Mandated Reporting

Yemisi Koya, M.D., presented on the chronic issue of underreporting by hospitals.

Policy and Legislative Updates

Wynee Hawk reported on policy and legislative updates. The first meetings of the Formulary Workgroup, a requirement of the Naturopathic Bill, have started. The Board has two legislative initiatives that will be introduced this legislative session; Criminal History Background Checks and Reporting Requirements for Athletic Trainers and Physician Assistants. There are budget concerns related to transferring Board funds and cutting PINs. The Board is development of the Midwife Bill, and will take a position if necessary. Meetings are scheduled with the new members of the House Health and Government Operation Committee and Education and Health & Environmental Affairs Committee to provide introductions, a brief overview of the Board, and to educate them on the Board’s mission. The Board discussed taking a position on HB 3/Prescription Drug Monitoring Program and setting up a meeting with our MBP Chair and the Chair of the Chiropractic Board regarding ads taken out by two chiropractors.
