

Maryland Board of Physicians

BOARD CHAIRMAN: HARRY C. KNIPP, M.D., FACR

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR: C. IRVING PINDER, JR.

IT'S COMING - BE PREPARED

"Be prepared," the motto of scouting, applies to license renewal.

Over the past five years, the license process has undergone significant changes. Renewal is online, with many answers pre-filled from the last renewal. Payment includes the option of using a credit card. This should make things easier.

For most physicians, license renewal is the only interaction between a licensee and the medical board. The Board of Physicians wants this to be as painless as possible and offers the following suggestions to be prepared.

1. Take the time to be accurate. When you complete a renewal application, you are certifying information to be accurate and complete. The Board is aware that in some other jurisdictions, third party entities are promoting the ability to complete physician renewals on behalf of the physician. If you use a third party, review the responses very carefully and double check each item for accuracy. Beware of offers to complete your renewal form for you.
2. Continuing medical education. The Board regulations are specific as to what documentation must be kept to validate compliance with the CME requirements. COMAR 10.32.01.09 lists these and is available at <http://www.dsd.state.md.us/comar/10/10.32.01.09.htm>. Be careful that your documentation of attendance at a CME program, (whether it be a certificate or other documentation) contains the: (a) program title, (b) sponsor's name, (c) physician's name, (d) inclusive date or dates and location of the CME event, (e) CME category designation and the number of designated or prescribed CME credit hours, and (f) documented verification of successful completion by stamp, signature, hospital printout, or other official proof; and that the documentation demonstrates that the CME activity fell within the 2-year period immediately preceding submission of the renewal. If chosen for audit, you will be required to show documentation that meets these requirements.
3. Payment of Maryland State taxes. Licenses of physicians who owe taxes to the State of Maryland cannot be renewed. The Board must follow Maryland Law HO Sec. 1-213 (eff. July 1, 2003). All renewal and reinstatement applications are checked for tax delinquency. Any applicants identified as tax delinquent are denied, and not processed for renewal or reinstatement. Physicians who do not clear up the outstanding tax liability before the end of the renewal period must go through the reinstatement process. Reinstatement takes time and can result in a period of unlicensure. For example, a physician applies for renewal on September 1, 2006 but has a tax liability and does not clear the tax liability until January 1, 2007. After applying for reinstatement and submitting necessary documentation, the physician is issued a reinstated license effective January 25, 2007. That physician was not licensed to practice medicine from October 1, 2006 (The license expiration date is September 30.) through January 24, 2007.

Physicians whose last names begin with the letters A-L must renew their medical licenses by September 30, 2006. A notice of renewal will be mailed in late June to the last confidential address the physician supplied to the Board. Application forms will not be mailed. Physicians can renew online or download the application from the Internet at www.mbp.state.md.us on or about July 17, 2006. Complete the renewal process as early as possible to assure that the renewal is completed by September 30.

Habib A. Bhutta, M.D.

BOARD MEMBER LENDS HELPING HAND

The biggest earthquake to strike the Kashmir region in 100 years struck on October 8, 2005 reaching a magnitude of 7.6 and leaving India, Pakistan and Afghanistan devastated. According to the United Nations, 69,400 were seriously wounded and more than 73,000 were confirmed dead.

Many countries, international organizations and non-governmental organizations offered relief aid to the region. Habib A. Bhutta, M.D., a surgeon and member of the Maryland Board of Physicians, was motivated to lend his support. Although DHMH did not deploy volunteers, Dr. Bhutta worked with MASH (Mobile Army Surgical Hospital) to provide assistance during his December 2005 deployment.

"Coping with the after-effects of a disaster as a relief worker is a hard pill to swallow," Dr. Bhutta said, "but knowing that you are able to make a difference and help those in need is the greatest gift."

Dr. Bhutta described his volunteer experience as rewarding because he was able to provide medical treatment for people affected by the disaster who may not have received assistance otherwise. He especially enjoyed working with the U.S. Military, who were stationed at the forefront of the triage locations and made sure that all protocols were obeyed. Dr. Bhutta described the working conditions as well-organized, well-resourced with hospital equipment and well-protected.

Dr. Bhutta suggested that health care professionals who may be interested in volunteering should take advantage of the DHMH Volunteer Corps program and the Board of Physician's online emergency preparedness training program to better prepare for the future disasters.

BOARD PRESCRIBING VIDEO NOW ONLINE

"A Sense of Balance" is a 20 minute video presentation on drugs, chronic pain, and related subjects including appropriate prescribing of controlled drugs, over prescribing, the addicted physician and identifying the drug seeking patient. This educational video is now available for online viewing at the Board of Physician website at www.mbp.state.md.us.

A Sense of Balance was produced in 1998 (in VHS format) by the Maryland Board of Physician Quality Assurance. In 2003, the name of the Board was changed to the Maryland Board of Physicians.

Viewers examine cases brought before the Board which deal with pain related issues to develop an understanding of the Board's position on these issues.

LEGISLATION STREAMLINES DELEGATION AGREEMENT PROCESS

Legislation passed during the 2006 session will allow some physicians and physician assistants to practice with a pending delegation agreement and eliminate some of the review and signature requirements in daily practice. The new law, SB 818, takes effect on October 1, and applies if the physician assistant has previously been approved for the same scope of practice in a different practice setting, and the supervising physician has been previously approved to supervise physician assistants in the practice setting for the same scope of practice. A delegation agreement is "pending" if it has been executed and submitted to the Board's Physician Assistant Advisory Committee for review but either the PAAC has not made a recommendation to the Board, or the Board has not made a final decision regarding the delegation agreement.

BOARD OF NURSING CLARIFIES RULING ON PHYSICIAN ASSISTANTS' ORDERS FOR PROCEDURAL SEDATION

In response to a request by the Board of Physicians, the Maryland Board of Nursing issued Maryland Board of Nursing Declaratory Ruling (DR) 06-1 on February 28, 2006. This ruling modifies and replaces DR 03-3.

The previously issued declaratory ruling permitted the registered nurse to administer procedural sedation prescribed by a Certified Registered Nurse Practitioner (CRNP) or Certified Registered Nurse Midwife (CRNM) but not a Certified Physician Assistant. The revised declaratory ruling also allows a registered nurse to administer procedural sedation as prescribed by a Certified Physician Assistant (PA) when the Physician Assistant:

- a) has an approved delegation agreement which states that prescription of procedural sedation is a part of the physician assistant's practice; and
- b) is providing care and prescribing procedural sedation to the client population specified in the physician assistant's delegation agreement.

The full text of the Declaratory Ruling is available at the Maryland Board of Nursing website at <http://www.mbon.org/practice/dr/2006-1.pdf>.

WARNING
REGARDING DELEGATION OF FLUOROSCOPY

The Board of Physicians has received several calls regarding the use of persons with an RCIS (Registered Cardiac Interventional Specialist) credential in cardiac catheterization or interventional radiology labs. The RCIS credential, issued by a not-for-profit organization, Cardiac Credentialing International, is not recognized in Maryland. Specifically, these individuals are not permitted to position patients, adjust settings on fluoroscopy equipment, or activate the fluoroscopy equipment. Neither a licensed physician nor a certified medical radiation technologist is permitted to delegate the operation of fluoroscopy equipment to an RCIS. A physician or medical radiation technologist who allows an unlicensed person to operate fluoroscopy equipment is aiding an unlicensed person in the practice of medical radiation technology and is subject to action by the Board against his/her license and/or a fine.
